Molesters have anti-social personality disorders. People with this disorder may be social, even glib. They believe the rules of society do not apply to them. They break many of society's rules, they lack feelings for others. In their minds, we and children are 'things' to be used. This sounds like a lot of rabbonium in frum communities. No one dares disobey them. And no, I am not anti-rabbi, but the frum community is an excellent incubator for such sex offenders.

To you, ((tucsonjew)) one of the problems is that when someone gets molested, ?? Instead going for help, ? They go for help by trying to get a job with children to be able to become an abuser, because he to was molested this is the biggest crime of lots of victims they do everything in their power to get a job around children to be able to play with penises, and to molest them because, ?? He was molested to, ?? This is so so wrong, a victim who doesn't go for help and he takes a job around children, ?? And he molested children, ?? Should be locked up,,

Today when a school is taking an employee the first question must be asked, if that person was ever ever molested, ?? If yes, ? It's a no no, (2) every employee before he gets accepted must sign a letter that if there will be any complaints against him he will be fired with out any questions, period, children are not a game,,

Most child sex abusers don't have a personality disorder, although some do. Many were sexually abused as children themselves. There is evidence that children who are sexually abused are more likely to develop borderline personality disorder as well as other psychiatric illnesses.

People with anti social personality disorder (a form of psychopathy) are born not made that way. They frequently exhibit symptoms like cruelty to animals from a young age. They are incurable.

Child sex abusers who don't have anti social personality disorder can be treated if they enter a good, specialised therapy program. Obviously all sex abusers should be off the streets.

They should be on a sex offenders list for life.

Molesters have a strong tendency to anti-social personality. The problem is they don't care about what they do. They gravitate to jobs that will position them to be with children. And because they think only of themselves and gratification, they use children and adults for their own purposes. Child sex abusers cannot be cured. Tell me one instance in which one is cured. Ask any shrink, they resist treatment because they don't care about their victims. An important part of treatment is taking responsibility for what they have done. They don't

But the way is not to take a job around children when you were abused, or you know that you have a sickness of touching or molesting, children, it's so so wrong, damaging children is and should be today one of the biggest crimes, on human beings, period,

I think that in the wake of things the following changes are needed.

- 1) Segregate adults from children.
- 2) No more swimming pools for children since it requires a lifeguard.
- 3) Board up all school buildings because schools require adult staff.
- 4) Teaching is to become illegal for all adults since anyone who gravitates towards children must be a pervert.
- 5) Children must walk or ride bicycles. No mass transit, since that will require an adult operator.
- 6) Children should not be allowed to have parents, since parents are generally adults -- potential molesters (why else would anyone have children? LOL). Does anyone here know the awful things every parent does to their children the first two years of their life. Disgusting...

The only problem with all the above is that it would take adults to enforce it all, so we are back to square one...

Yes, what I am suggesting is that we now are so hooked on child welfare, that we are near turning our children into cold heartless beings. Any affection one shows a youngster is now shunned. An innocent tap on the shoulder is almost a federal crime nowadays. A welcoming handshake has now become frowned upon. The shift is slowly causing the world to become a disgusting place to live in.

Molestation needs to be dealt with, but the panic is and results thereof are matters not to be taken lightly.

Of course you and Father Of A Victim/Good Jew are too shallow to understand this.

well said,

I think that the answer is test tube babies fed formula from day 1. It would be possible to employ adults as long as each employed adult has 2 armed guards watching over them with of course constant camera surveillance.

Anyone caught breastfeeding should be thrown in jail with the key thrown away. Breast feeding is the worst possible form of molestation with the women thrusting her nipples in the babies mouth. I know of many women who have done this. And then they go and point their finger at innocent neighbors claiming they are pedophiles.

Of course you are right about any kind of touch. It all destroys the child for life and we all know where a tap on the shoulder could lead. In any case, thank you for your important posting. You are both a visionary and common sense individual.
