

MILWAUKEE MAN PLEADS GUILTY TO SEXUALLY ABUSING CHILDREN IN THEIR HOME ON SHABBAT

Awareness Events - 2015-02-26

Michael Revzin of Milwaukee pleaded guilty to sexually abusing one child under the age of 13 and exposing himself to another, while visiting their home on Shabbat. As part of a plea deal, four other charges of sexual abuse were dismissed.

Arrested on April 24, 2014, Revzin was charged with two counts of first degree sexual assault on children and four counts of exposing himself to children. On January 9, he pleaded guilty to the sexually assault of a child under 13 during 2010 or 2011, and of exposing himself to another child in 2013. Revzin was scheduled to be sentenced on February 20th, but his defense has claimed that he is not competent (despite previous doctor rulings that he is indeed competent) . A doctor will present a report on March 27.

You can read the full court transcript from the plea hearing here