

DR.EPHRAIM D. BECKER

August 4, 2008

I Ephraim D. Becker hereby commit to limiting my professional work to males only.

By this I confirm that under no circumstances will I work with women, privately, institutionally, fee based, or as a volunteer, in the capacity of counselor, therapist, or teacher.

I will not see women in marriage counseling, even in the presence of their husbands.

I agree to immediately terminate all work with current female clients, and will in no way promote myself from now on as a marriage counselor or therapist who works with women.

I agree to be supervised in my work with male clients with an eye towards confirming growth and future ability to broaden my practice.

Should I be found to be in violation of the above commitment, I understand that I can be brought to Bais Din for a Din Torah.

Ephraim D. Becker
