Eleven Rocklanders - 10 adults and one juvenile - have been charged in an online child pornography investigation, according to Rockland law enforcement officials.

The Rockland County Sheriff's Department and the Rockland District Attorney's Office said the arrests follow an investigation that included local police agencies along with U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Homeland Security, the U.S. Secret Service, the state Crimes Against Children Task Force and the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children.

The Rockland County Sheriff's Department said that with the assistance of the Stony Point Police Department and the Town of Ramapo Police Department, 11 search warrants were conducted over the past three months in Rockland, leading to evidence collection and the subsequent 11 arrests.

The charges include: Promoting an Obscene Sexual Performance By A Child (D Felony); Possessing an Obscene Sexual Performance By A Child (E Felony).

Arrested were:

Donald Carpenter, Stony Point

Silvio Mazzella, Stony Point

Jon Koenigkeit, Suffern
