School district officials on Wednesday notified parents about several Level 1 and Level 2 sex offenders now living in Rockland County.

Among those offenders named are Clinton Ford, who recently moved to the Pearl River area, Jonathan Koenigkeit and Michael Spingarn, who both have moved to the Suffern area, and Linton Wright, who now lives in the Spring Valley area, officials said. All are Level 1 offenders considered to be at low risk of repeating their crimes.

Another offender, Wesley Didrichsen, is a Level 2 offender considered at moderate risk of repeating his crime.

Didrichsen, who now lives at 6 Bayard Lane, Suffern, stands about 5-feet-9-inches tall, weighs about 230 pounds, and has red hair and green eyes, according to the New York State Sex Offender Registry (<http://www.criminaljustice.ny.gov/SomsSUBDirectory/offenderDetails.jsp?offenderid=40095>).

The 24-year-old was convicted on March 4, 2013 of possession of obscene sexual performance by a child under 16 years old and was sentenced to 90 days in jail and 10 years probation.

Didrichsen's crime involved pornography found on his computer, according to the registry. He did not know his victim.

The state's Sex Offender Registry lists only those offenders considered at moderate to high risk of repeating their crimes though Level 1 offenders are still required to register with authorities during their probationary period.
