The Jerusalem District Attorney's Office filed an indictment against Avraham Gilad, 30, a resident of the city, for an indecent act against a 14-year-old boy

According to the indictment, at the beginning of March, the complainant was on his way to the yeshiva where he was studying. Gilad passed by with his car and noticed Katin, stopped next to him, and began a conversation with him. Gilad begged the young man to accompany him to guide him on his journey. During the trip, the defendant committed an indecent act
