

Cops: Spring Valley man looked up 10-year-old's skirt 1:01 AM, Mar. 12, 2011 |

James O'Rourke
jorourke@lohud.com

- Filed Under
- News
- Rockland County, New York

SPRING VALLEY — A car service driver from Spring Valley is accused of looking under a 10-year-old girl's skirt as he drove her to school.

Aron Pashkin, 69, of 150 Liberty Parkway was charged with endangering the welfare of a child, a misdemeanor, after his arrest on March 4, according to Ramapo police.

Pashkin is thought to have picked the girl up from her Monsey home about 8:45 a.m. Feb. 7 to drive her to her Spring Valley school.

Police said that while driving the girl, Pashkin looked under her skirt and then made suggestive comments to her.

Police Friday evening would not identify the company that Pashkin worked for and would not explain the passing of nearly one month delay between the alleged incident and Pashkin's arrest. Whether the car service had been hired independently by the girl's family, by officials at her school or by the school district also was not clear.

Pashkin was released on $500 bail and told to appear in Ramapo Town Court at a later date.

There was no telephone number listed for his Liberty Parkway home.

The investigation into Pashkin remains open and police are seeking additional information.

Contact Ramapo police at 845-357-2400.

Comments\(4\) | Share your thoug