A 15-YEAR-OLD boy told police he was forced to shower in front of a pervert in a Brooklyn Jewish ritual bath center, authorities said yesterday.

The Crown Heights boy told his father about the Dec. 31 incident at Empire Shtibel Mikvah and they went to cops.

Police arrested David Midina, 23, and charged him with sex abuse, forcible touching, harassment and endangering the welfare of a child.

CROWN HEIGHTS [CHI] — At 4:12pm, Friday, Erev Shabbos, a child called the Shomrim hotline asking for help. The child stated that he was just molested at the Empire Shtibel Mikvah and the perpetrator was still in the Mikvah.

Numerous Shomrim members arrived on the scene within seconds. After speaking to the child, they requested for Police to further investigate. The members had the suspect, a 23 year old Israeli, wait for Police.

The child told the Police what happened and the officers, then walked suspect to precinct, for further questioning by detectives.

After being interrogated at the precinct the suspect was formally arrested on charges pertaining to his crimes.
